Section 2:

Any necessary business between conventions shall be handled by the President and Board of Directors. The minutes of each Directors Meeting shall be printed in the following monthly newsletter. Policies approved by the Board of Directors during the year shall be presented to the membership as minutes at the Annual Convention. If these minutes are accepted by the voting members at the convention, the policies will become accepted policies of the Association. This does not include revisions and amendments to the Bylaws.

Article VI

The Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association shall maintain a discretionary Scholarship Fund. The TOTFA Scholarship fund will be comprised of money donated specifically to the Scholarship Fund by members of TOTFA (either as cash donations or through fund raising) or money donated from the general funds of the TOTFA by the Board of Directors. The Scholarship Fund will be controlled separately from the general funds of TOTFA but will be controlled by the President and Board of Directors, whom will keep the membership apprised of the amount of money in the Scholarship Fund via the Texas Fiddler. A document outlining the Rules and Eligibility, Selection Process, and General Information will be maintained by the Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association.

Article VII

The Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association shall maintain a list of standard contest rules and rules for becoming an Association Approved Contest and these contests are required to adopt these rules in order to remain Association Approved Contest. No person may compete in an Association Approved Contest unless they are a Musician Member.

Article VIII

General Provisions:

A. Approved Contest Judges List:

Musician Members shall be eligible to judge any TOTFA approved contest and, by default, is considered to be on the Approved Contest Judges List.

B. Removing judges from Approved Contest Judges List:

A judge may be removed from the Approved Contest Judges List for showing consistent prejudice for or against any contestant, or for repeatedly displaying a lack of knowledge and understanding of Texas fiddling. Judges may be temporarily or permanently removed by the Board of Directors when, upon investigation of Musician member's complaints, just cause is shown.

C. Musicians shall have the right to file complaints against judges:

Musician members of the Association shall have the right to file complaints against judges when, after due consideration, they feel some particular judge is discriminating against any member of the Association. Complaints shall be written, signed by the member, and filed with the President of the Association. No musician will be negatively impacted or discriminated against for filing a complaint.

D. Suspension of members from the Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association:

Any Musician member who resigns from the Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association will be suspended. The suspension will last for a period of one year from the date of his or her resignation. Names of persons being suspended shall be listed in the newsletter. The member under suspension shall not receive the newsletter nor receive refund of any dues. Suspended members shall not be allowed to compete in any Association approved contests. If a member is suspended two times, he or she will have to appear before the membership at the annual convention if he or she wishes to be reinstated.

E. Approved contests not following standard contest rules:

In the event that a contest agrees to follow the standard contest rules, but plainly is not set up to do so at the time the contest occurs, it shall be the responsibility of all Association members present to persuade the contest officials to follow the rules. Should the official refuse, the Musician Members of the Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association shall not compete in the contest.

F. Judges and Judging:

Three complaints in writing against a judge will warrant an investigation by the Board of Directors. A Director should be one of the judges for the State Championship Contest. Judges may call for any category of tune. Judges may not call for a specific tune to be played in a contest. Three judges will be used to judge a contest if at all possible.

G. Registration:

A contestant must be a member in good standing to register for competition; however, this requirement is waived for fiddlers 13 years or age of younger for one (1) contest per year and for any contest held in their county of residence, as an incentive to become a member. A contestant must be present in order to register for a contest.

H. Alcohol:

The control of alcohol and persons under the influence is the responsibility of contest sponsors and directors, not the Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association, its President, or members of the Board of Directors.

I. Disorderly Conduct at Contests:

Any disorderly conduct at Association contests by any Association member will be subject to review by the Board of Directors and may lead to suspension of membership for up to one year. Complaints should be written and signed by the complainant and forwarded to the President, Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association.

J. Contest Approval:

Contests applying for approval too late to be listed in the newsletter may be required to mail notices to the entire membership of the Association. The TOTFA Board of Directors or delegate will provide this service, and the cost will be charged to the contest organizers. No other contest will be approved for the same date as the TOTFA convention and state contest.

K. Accompanist Contests:

Contestants in accompanist contests must have a Musician membership in the Association. One guitar player can be used during an accompanist contest if the contestant is a bass player.

L. Gate Fees:

If an admission fee is charged, officials of the TOTFA may negotiate for a percentage of that fee to be returned to the Association.

M. Items for Sale:

Individuals offering items for sale bearing Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association insignia must be approved by the Board of Directors.

N. "The Texas Fiddler" newsletter:

The Texas Fiddler is the official publication of The Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association (TOTFA). The "Fiddler" is published monthly and mailed electronically or via first class mail to all current members in good standing of the Association. Extra hard copies may be ordered for $2.00 if available.
