May 7: 50th Annual Fiddle Fest & Southwest Fiddle Championship in Groesbeck

Usually the 2nd weekend of the month, the date of the contest this year is May 7, a week earlier than usual. I'm afraid I may be too late in getting out this newsletter to reach the readership in time!

Details for the contest are:

Location: Groesbeck Convention Center, 100 E. Navasota St.
Groesbeck, Texas

Divisions: 0-15, 16-35, 36-64, 65+, accompanist, & championship (top 2 from each fiddler division). This is not necessarily the order in which the divisions will compete.

Registration: 10 a.m.

Contest starts: 11 a.m.

Groesbeck always puts on a good contest with a friendly audience. It will be indoors for the 2nd time in a row this year, so there will be no issues with weather. Groesbeck Masonic Lodge #354 is making a BBQ lunch available for purchase. Ample seating, great tunes, and no entrance fee! You must be a TOTFA member to compete, but 1-year memberships will be available for $30 at time of registration. Pre-registration is not required. I hope there is a large turnout by our membership despite my newsletter tardiness!!

TOTFA, By the Numbers

TOTFA currently has 145 members
Bank balance, as of May 4: $5,721.47

The Texas Old Time Fiddlers Association wishes to publicly express their gratitude for Royce and Loyce Franklin's very generous donation to the organization. We are honored.

Thank you!

Minutes of TOTFA Board Meeting Held April 23, 2016

Board Attendees: Bart Baker, Jason Andrew, Jordan Bankston,
Elijah Stone

Meeting started: 8:30 pm. Meeting ended: 9:09 pm.

1. Income - Possible Fundraiser: In addition to music, have other activities such as kornhole, washers, horseshoes. Might be able to organize contest in Whitewright in 2017. Possible contest or benefit in Victoria. • Discussion of increase in membership dues. To keep TOTFA going it would help greatly. Board is in a constant state of being short of funds. Jason motions the board take this to convention for membership vote, Jordan seconds, motion carries. • Idea of opening up membership and contests to allow divisions for dobro, mandolin, banjo, flatpicking – attract the bluegrass crowd. Fiddle contest would be the headline. Elijah will research this.
2. TOTFA Contest/Convention - Partnering with Marty McPherson's contest again this year. Board will focus on convention. If a contest comes along then great. If a lead develops then board will follow it.
3. In General - Might be able to boost contest attendance by organizing a jam after. Be more welcoming to new members/attendees. Regarding grant money from Texas Folklife. Bart has made contact, but it may take some time for this to happen.
4. Adjournment - Jason motions, Jordan seconds, motion carries.

Truman Rex Gillentine

October 27, 1953 – April 16, 2016

We lost a dear friend in April. Rex Gillentine was an excellent musician, but he also had a great sense of humor. I enjoyed his stories, and I have one of my own I'd like to share: We were at a contest a few years ago, I forget which one. Before it started he told me that he wanted to give me a letter. He said to be sure to remind him so he would not forget. I wondered, "What could this be, that was so important?" By and by, the contest ended and Rex came over to me and gave me a folded up slip of paper, saying "I told you I was going to give you a letter, and here it is." He waited until I unfolded the paper and saw that there was only a large "A" scribbled on it before he said, "See? I told you I was going to give you 'Aaa' letter." And he drew out the long "Aaa" sound as he said it. Then he laughed, and I couldn't help but laugh along. I will miss him, but will always smile when I remember this. Here is Rex's official obituary...

Truman Rex Gillentine passed away April 16, 2016 at his home near Graham. Funeral service was held at 11 a.m. Tuesday, April 19, 2016 at McMillan-Satterwhite Funeral Home. Interment took place at Newcastle Cemetery.

Rex was born October 27, 1953 in Graham, Texas to the late Henry and Betty (Brashears) Gillentine. He married Margaret Sue Reeves in 1987. Rex was an accomplished musician and was widely known in music circles across the United States. He was inducted into the Fiddlers Hall of Fame in 2008. Rex was a Past Master of Young County Lodge #485 Ancient Free and Accepted Masons and a member of the Bethel Baptist Church in Graham.

Survivors include his wife, Susie Gillentine; son, Nicholas Gillentine; sister, Sherry Rose and husband Robert; nephew, Allen Rose and wife Rhonda; several cousins and friends.
